

Teacher of the Year Program Launch

November 12, 2019

Teacher of the Year (ToY) Program

- Designed to honor and recognize excellent teachers working for AUSD
- Alameda's ToY program modeled after Alameda County ToY and State ToY requirements
- Families, students, staff, and community members encouraged to nominate teachers

Teacher of the Year (ToY) Program

- Nomination forms are available online and at school sites
- Qualified nominees advance to the next phase, which includes an application process and submission of letters of support by nominee
- Selected finalists will be observed and interviewed by the Selection Committee

Teacher of the Year (ToY) Program

- Alameda's Teacher of the Year will be formally introduced at the Board Meeting in May
- Alameda's Teacher of the Year will advance and participate in Alameda County Teacher of the Year Program in October

Teacher of the Year (ToY) Timeline

November: Teacher of the Year Launch

December: Nominations Due

February: Selection of Finalists

April: Observe and Interview Finalists

May: Formally Introduce Alameda Unified's
Teacher of the Year

ToY 2019 – Dr. Pauline Stahl

2019 AUSD Teacher of the Year
2019 Alameda County Teacher of the Year

ToY 2019 – Dr. Pauline Stahl

“My passion in teaching has always been to share my love for science and to help others see the amazing connections in our world that a knowledge of science allows.”

- Dr. Pauline Stahl

Previous Teachers of the Year

2018

Mary Otieku
Bay Farm School

2017

Kevin Gorham
Encinal Jr. & Sr. High School

Teacher of the Year Selection Committee

Composed of the representative from the following:

- 3 Former Alameda Unified ToY Recipients
- 1 AEA Designee
- 1 PTA Council Representative
- 1 Board of Education Member
- 1 Site Administrator