

Board Direction to Conduct Review of the Name of Woodstock Child Development Center

Susan Davis
Senior Manager, Community Affairs
August 23, 2022

Presentation Goals

---

- Introduce history of WCDC name
- Discuss steps for renaming
- Review timeline
- Board direction to review name

History of the Current Name

- Woodstock Child Development Center established in 1943.
- Named after the “Woodstock” neighborhood, one of three original settlements in Alameda.
- Originally housed at Singleton site, then moved to Longfellow site.

From “Back in Time: A Trip Through Alameda’s Three Towns”
Alameda Sun, December 31, 2020

Step 1: Name Review Trigger

BP 7310
AR 7310

Board interest in naming WCDC after Board Member Dailey

AR 7310 calls for review of name if:

- Petition signed by 25 percent enrolled students or
- Petition signed by parents/guardians of at least 25 percent enrolled students or
- Petition signed by at least 50% of school's employees (PT and FT) or
- Board calls for review or
- Superintendent calls for a review

Steps 2 & 3: Review and Recommend

Step 2: Is the name appropriate?

- If named after geographic area, has the name become outdated?
- Hold 3 school community meetings
  - Students
  - Employees
  - Families of students

Step 3: Superintendent recommends renaming to Board

Steps 4 & 5: Committee & Community

---

Step 4: Convene Renaming Committee

- Representatives from certificated and non- certificated staff, students, parents/guardians, alumni groups, and school community (e.g., members of business or neighborhood organizations and civic officials).

Step 5: Hold Community Meetings

- Meeting 1: Alert the community that a naming process has begun
- Meeting 2: Solicit potential names
- Meeting 3: Receive feedback on the potential names the committee is considering

Steps 6 & 7: Survey & Name Submission

Step 6: Committee conducts survey of school community, providing minimum of 2 names and maximum of 5 names.

Step 7: If school community approves a new name, the committee votes to recommend the name to the Superintendent.

Steps 8-10: Recommendation to Board, Public Comment, Board Vote

- Step 8: Superintendent recommends name to Board
- Step 9: 60-Day public comment period
- Step 10: Board vote

Timeline

---

- Possible to complete by mid-December
- New name can be officially implemented in 2023-24 (CDE).

Review of the Name of Woodstock Child Development Center

Board Discussion

